Disorientation

There are times when we can begin to feel disoriented or even lost. This can be while looking for something in an unfamiliar town, searching for something you lost, or something else. Sometimes we can feel lost in the spiritual sense. If this is or was you, please know that you are not alone. This feeling has been felt by countless people through the whole of our history.

*O Lord, God of my salvation, when, at night,
I cry out in your presence,
let my prayer come before you;
incline your ear to my cry.
Psalm 88:1-2*

The days are getting shorter. The nights are getting longer. Holidays are approaching with empty chairs at the table where loved ones once sat. The fevered pace of Christmas preparations is beginning. There are so many things on our hearts and minds and the experience of it all can feel quite disorientating. It makes it hard to find our bearings.

As the Psalmist later states in Psalm 89 "I declare that your steadfast love is established forever; your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens." God has made a promise to us, and does speak to us in times of disorientation. God continues to meet us where we are and walk with us until we find that place of orientation again.

During Advent this year, and into the Christmas Season, we will be exploring these themes during worship, especially through a "Finding Peace" sermon series. This series will be focused on the texts from the Book of Isaiah that appear in the lectionary throughout the season. These themes and texts are as follows:

- Dec. 1 – Where am I? Isaiah 2:1-5
- Dec. 8 – Finding Hope. Isaiah 11:1-10
- Dec. 15 – Finding Grace. Isaiah 35:1-10
- Dec. 22 – Finding Faith. Isaiah 7:10-16
- Christmas Eve – Finding Joy. Isaiah 9:2-7
- Christmas Day – Finding Peace. Isaiah 62:6-12

We hope and pray that worship during Advent and Christmas helps all of us move from a sense of disorientation, to one of "Finding Peace." Please join us throughout this season, and consider recommending worship at Grace to others who may benefit from such a message of hope, grace, faith, joy, and peace during this busy season.

In Christ, Pastor Mike

Dear Grace Family,

Thank you for your friendship and caring during the time of our father/grandfather/great-grandfather's passing and funeral. Pastor Mike, Rich and Emma made the funeral service meaningful for our family and friends. Valerie and the ladies who served at the luncheon welcomed everyone graciously. We appreciated the beautiful flower arrangement sent by the Chancel Choir and the many other expressions of sympathy. Church was a central part of the lives of our dad and mom, and they felt that the Upper Room was a fitting resting place.

With our heartfelt thanks:
Kathy, Jenny, Kurt, Kelley, Gabe and Zeppelin.

The Gift of Presence

Reprinted from Portico, a Ministry of the ELCA

Life is full of distractions, especially in this busy season of giving.

When we take the time to set intentions and be truly present, we gain clarity and direction to keep us focused on the people and passions that matter most to us.

Being present allows us to make healthier choices for our financial, emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being. In this state of mind, we can notice, listen, and attend to life within and outside ourselves with integrity.

Throughout the month of December, you are invited to use a Presence Jar. To begin find a clear container and print the daily activities below to guide your journey.

Cut out the activities from the list below, also found in printable form with additional suggestions, at the following REALLY long link (this link is clickable if you are reading online!) <https://www.porticobenefits.org/CallToLiveWell/HowPorticoCanHelp/WellnessActivities/GiftOfPresence> Feel free to add your own ideas — and place them in the jar. Each day, draw an intention to focus on. You may choose to practice a new intention each day, or live into one for several days in a row. Complement your daily practice with weekly devotions to gain peace, connect with those around you, and experience the light of Christ this Advent.

Sing a favorite Seasonal Song

Meditate – sit in a relaxed position, notice your breathing, clear your mind of thoughts.

Declutter one room – an organized space can reduce your overall stress level.

Name one thing you are grateful for – friends, laughter, good coffee, pets.

Increase your Steps – take an extra walk today, even if it is just a short one.

Savor a snack – Take a moment to truly enjoy what you are eating.

Take a moment to notice nature – it is amazing what can go unnoticed when you're going about your day

Make a meal together

Speak or send a word of hope – be a light in the darkness for those around you.

Apologize – If something is weighing on your heart, seek reconciliation to find peace.

Make time for your passion – Release your creativity and reconnect with yourself.

Share your heart – Voice your gratitude, love, frustration, or pain with someone you care about.

Practice Patience – Focus on your breathing to reduce stress and give yourself time to respond rather than react.

Decide what you will commit to – e.g. yes to coffee with a friend, no to hosting your extended family.

Get a good night's sleep – Go to bed early after at least an hour of NO screen time.

Lydia-Martha Circle

Lydia/Martha Circle will meet Thursday, December 12th at 9:30 am. We plan to have a Christmas Carol sing along and fill Christmas Gift Bags for our Homebound members. All women of Grace are always welcome to join.

The Festival of Trees

Willing Workers and Staff will arrange trees in the Gathering Hall on Wednesday, December 4 (the Knitters Guild Tree will be placed a day early for their meeting on the 3rd). You will be able to start decorating after that date. As the Festival of Trees has been so successful over the past few years, we find it hard to accommodate everyone's request for specific size trees! So this year we will not be reserving them - trees will be on a first come first serve basis. We will still happily make a sign for your tree once it is set up – just tell the office which tree is yours!

Do you like to sing but can't make it to weekly choir rehearsals? Come be a part of the Chancel Choir for a night on Christmas Eve! The anthem at the 5:00pm service will be an arrangement of a familiar Christmas tune, sung in unison (no harmony.) It will require only a 30 minute rehearsal time before the service at 4:00pm, Tuesday Dec. 24, and you may sit with family in the congregation during worship. If you are interested please let Emma know! Music will be distributed ahead of time, as well as a recording of the melody to listen to at home if desired. For further information or to commit, please contact Emma in person or at emma@gracedm.org.

December 1, 5pm - Grace ensembles and soloists provide the program for Advent by Candlelight

December 8, 9am - Grace Bells and Grace Brass play in worship.

December 15, 9am - Grace Chancel Choir presents their musical Christmas offering in worship.

December 24, 5pm - Grace Festival Choir sings in worship, rehearsal at 4pm.

Advent Service Learning

Believe it or not Advent Service Learning will soon begin! For several years now Confirmation students and mentors have engaged in acts of service each Wednesday evening during the season of Advent.

Wednesdays December 4, 11, and 18 from 6-8 p.m. 6th, 7th, and 8th graders and mentors will gather together for some meaningful time together learning about and helping others.

Here is a look at that schedule-

December 4 @ Grace: Joppa sleep mats with Jill Boesch, bring your plastic bags!

December 11: Moore Family Christmas shopping

December 18 @ Grace: Moore Family Christmas wrapping

December 25 and January 1: NO CLASS

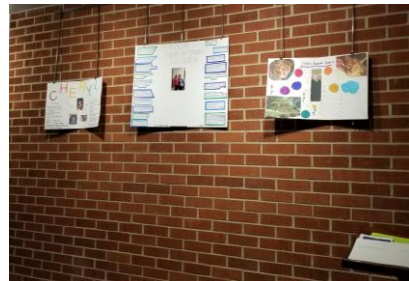

January 8: Class resumes

This is one favorite times in our Confirmation schedule. I look forward to this every year and I hope you are looking forward to it, too!

Peace, Ellen

Eighth Grade Mentor Profiles

During the season of Advent we will be displaying eighth grade mentor profiles in the Gathering Hall. The third and final year of our Confirmation ministry here at Grace is a mentor year. Eighth grade students choose an adult member to serve as their mentor. One of the assignments is to create a profile of their mentor, sharing information about who that person is and what they have learned from them. Please take a moment to stop and see what they have to share about these special people.

Information will be shared later, but please save these dates on your calendar for our youth fundraisers!

National Adoption Month

November is National Adoption Month, a time to honor families who have opened their hearts and homes to children in need. For LSI, it is a time to celebrate the families we support through Foster Care and Adoption, and to raise awareness for the hundreds of Iowa children in need of a safe, loving home.

In 30 counties across western Iowa, LSI Foster Care and Adoption recruits, licenses, and supports foster and adoptive families to ensure every Iowa child grows up in a safe, stable environment.

But more work needs to be done. According to the most recent federal data, more than 100,000 children in the U.S. are waiting to be adopted from foster care, and thousands of teens age out of foster care every year without a permanent family. To learn more about supporting Iowa children in foster care, visit LSIowa.org/Foster, or contact Deb Whitford, LSI director of philanthropy and church relations, at Deborah.Whitford@LSIowa.org or 563.676.2065.

Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. LSI is an affiliated social ministry partner of the Iowa congregations of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) and a member of LSA (Lutheran Services in America). We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. Learn more at www.LSIowa.org and www.facebook.com/LSI.iowa.

A Growing Family

Lindsey and Andrea were no strangers to foster parenting. Their older brother fostered children for 10 years, and they were inspired by his drive and passion for supporting vulnerable children. Until recently, they hadn't seen themselves as foster parents. But something in their hearts told them they were needed.

"It's been on our hearts for a lot of years, and we have the room and love," Andrea says. "It's something we knew we could do and it's needed."

The two sisters decided to become licensed foster parents earlier this year through LSI Foster Care and Adoption. Now, they are caring for children in foster care at the same time. Lindsey and Andrea regularly meet up to support one another and ensure the children can connect and feel less alone during the most vulnerable time in their young lives.

"It's been so important to have a connection to another foster family," Lindsey says. "The kids can see they're not different. There are other children in their same situation."

Meanwhile, they are busy building a strong bond with the children's birth families. Lindsey says foster parenting is a way for them to give a child stability while also nurturing their whole family.

Lindsey and Andrea have also found support from other local foster families. They are there for each other, offering a shoulder to lean on when anyone needs an extra boost on the difficult days.

"There is a need for foster families in Iowa, and there is so much good that comes out of fostering," Andrea says.

December Adult Education

December 1: Advent Hymn Study

The second session in a series of encounters with the words of hymns of worship will occur in Grace Hall I following worship on December 1. The presentation will briefly address the advantages and disadvantages of sung hymns within worship followed by consideration of only the words to some familiar and possibly not so familiar hymns which are appropriate to the themes within the season of Advent. There will be no singing of the hymns; rather, the participants will be asked to consider the meaning or lessons contained within the words and then share those with the others in attendance.

December 8: Engaging All Generations in Service and Learning

Minister for Youth and Family Ellen Rothweiler will lead discussion on the importance of Cross Generational ministry in the Church.

From the materials we will use to guide our conversation-

“We have become a very age segregated society. And too many of our congregations have followed this unhealthy trend. Congregations are a vast untapped potential for bringing all the generations together. In doing so, we have an opportunity to practice accompaniment. This session will provide examples of how all the ages can accompany one another and serve together and truly be the Body of Christ”

Come hear more about what gifts your generation can offer to the whole Body of Christ.

Here is information on what the kids will be doing in Grace Hall II

Come and craft!

On Sunday, December 8 beginning at 10 am children of all ages are invited to come and make an ornament for our homebound members. Each year our ladies circles assemble a Christmas bag for each homebound member, and in years past our Sunday School kids have contributed to the effort. The children’s crafts are always a big hit! Beginning at 10 am in Grace Hall II Karri Brandsfield and Deanna Weber will have all the materials needed for you to make an ornament or two for the Christmas bags. Please come and have some fun while bringing joy to our members who cannot be here at Grace with us.

December 15 and 22: Because of Bethlehem. A Max Lucado Advent Study

Join us for an Advent Study by Mac Lucado. Max will unpack for us the promises of Christmas that reveal a lifetime of hope all because of one baby born in Bethlehem.

December 29: Fellowship

Grace Fellowship Advent by Candlelight

The next meeting of Grace Fellowship will be at 5 p.m. on December 1, 2019 for Advent by Candlelight. As of printing time, the sign-up deadline has passed, but we are expecting over 100 to attend! As the color of Advent is blue, we are encouraging everyone to find an item of blue to wear! This family friendly event will feature an Advent program with readings, musicians from Grace, and a catered traditional holiday meal – come hungry!

Grace Fellowship meets quarterly in Grace Hall at 5:00 p.m. for a light luncheon and a program. We’d be happy to have you join us! If you have any questions, or have a program idea, contact Karen Taylor.

Ladies Night Out – Open to all women of Grace

The annual LNO Christmas Party will take place this year at Valerie Culp's house on Sunday 12/15 at 6 p.m. A game/gift exchange will take place with a wrapped gift around $20 (this is NOT a white elephant gift, this should be a gift you would like to receive). The game/gift exchange is a favorite event every year so please join us! This is a potluck so bring a dish to share and come hungry! Please let Val know what you are bringing so we don't end up with several veggie trays or - more likely with this group – 5 types of meatballs or desserts!

Please RSVP to Val by Friday, December 13th valerieculp@mchsi.com or 515-965-5972.

Grace 2020 Endowment Applications

Now available on the website <https://gracedm.org/resources/forms-and-applications/>

Applications are due January 31, 2020. Awards will be announced by March 31, 2020. Requests for specific, finite projects are preferred. The Endowment does not fund operational expenses. Submit proposal with detailed breakdown of project expenses. If the entire request is not granted this will allow for possible partial funding. 2. A final written report is required to be submitted to the Endowment Fund Committee no later than December 1st of the year of the grant. The report shall include documentation of the expenditures and completion status of the project.

Grace's Star Tree

Choose a star and make someone's Christmas special – an adult from one of Mosaic's local group homes or a child from LSI's Early Development Program.

Please select a star from the Star Tree in the Gathering Hall. It will be up the Sunday before Thanksgiving (since Thanksgiving is so late this year). Items should be returned, unwrapped, to Grace by Sunday December 15. Please limit the cost for gifts to about $25. If several items are listed, you may choose the one or ones to fit the money amount.

Mosaic is a faith-based organization serving adults with intellectual disabilities. LSI's Early Childhood Program provides supportive services to at risk single mothers from the prenatal period until age five when the child starts kindergarten.

If as we approach December 15th, you are unable to shop for your star gift, let us know so we can. If you have your gift and are unable to deliver it to church by the 15th, please also let us know so we don't go shopping and duplicate presents.

If you have questions, contact Joie Gronert at 279 - 4974 or Denise Friesth at 276 - 6873. Have fun shopping!

ELCA Good Gifts

Give the gift that keeps on giving; a cow, goat, bees, chickens, microloan for a woman... The ELCA Good Gifts tree is in the Gathering Hall (after the Stars have been chosen). Select the ornament with the gift of your choice. Write your check to Grace Lutheran Church with ELCA Good Gifts in the memo line.

Thank You, the Hunger Team
